1. During recent months there has been increased activity among Chinese Communist organizers in Cuba and an expansion of their propaganda programs.
 2. The Chinese Federation of Labor and Chinese Youth League have set up offices in Habana and will publish a Chinese language newspaper for the labor and youth groups. (Comment. Their offices are located at the Liga Democratica Cultural China (LDCC-Chinese Democratic Cultural League), which is the center of Chinese Communist activities in Cuba. The LDCC reportedly obtains its orders from Mao Tse Tung.)
